

Nepali Association of Oregon Progress Report 2009-2011

Since the election of a new executive committee for the two year term of 2009-11, following activities have been accomplished:

Membership:

In 2009-2011, we have collected $2,195 from general membership since the New Year event in 2009. Memberships are generally renewed or enrolled at the regular NAO events: New Year and Dasain. A list of up-to-date membership is regularly posted on the NAO website under Current Membership.

Fund raising for the NAO Education Fund.

We have collected a sum of $5,970 from the donations received from 102 individuals within Nepali community as well as some from out-of-state Nepali friends.

The NAO Education Fund was established in early 2009. NAO started the fund with $500, which was matched by a local philanthropist Kinoko Thompson's contribution of $400. In April 2009, NAO Executive committee unanimously decided to contribute 25 percent of the net profit made in every NAO program to this fund. As a result, NAO contributed a sum of $1,416 from various events in 2009-2010.

A List of all contributors to the 2009 Scholarship Fund:

On May 1st 2010, NAO organized a get together to welcome and discuss issues of Nepali diaspora in USA with the senior vice present of NRN National Coordination Council of USA, Mukesh Singh at Tualatin Public Library.

Interaction with AC Lama from Seattle

AC Sherpa, a young mountain climber from Seattle, Washington who climbed all major peaks in seven continents in one year, came to Portland to share his experience about mountain climbing and works of his foundation in Solu-khumbu, Nepal. AC Sherpa will be back again this summer to attend the Nepal Day on July 16, 2011, at Portland. The program was organized at Tualatin public Library.

Nepal Day –July 16, 2011

In honor of tourism year 2011 in Nepal, NAO has decided to celebrate July 16 as the Nepal Day, first ever event in Portland. The event is geared to introduce Nepal and various facets of Nepali culture and customs to local Americans. Nepali Ambassador Shankar P. Sharma has accepted the invitation to attend the event.

A steering committee has been formed to start the planning and resource management for the Nepal Day event. The committee consists of the following members: Anupama Shrestha, Bimal Pathak, Bikram Vaidya, Narayan Gurung, and Raja Shrestha. NAO President and General Secretary will be ex-officio members of the committee.

Digital Photography Seminar –A fundraiser program

In support of orphan children and their education in rural Nepal, Maggie Doyne, 23, has started the school project at Kopila Village in Surkhet, Nepal. She began working on the project when she was 18 while traveling to the village with her own money that she saved from babysitting.

To support her cause, Dibesh Shrestha organized an Introduction to Digital Photography Seminar on March 27, 2011. About 17 people attended the seminar and raised a total of $1155. Intel will donate additional $240 to the cause on behalf of Dibesh Shrestha.

All the proceeds from this event and the fifty percent of profit made ($720) at the Momo event ($1975) will be donated to Blinknow foundation supporting the works of Maggie Doyne in Nepal.

As a result of Dibesh's initiative, additional $620 will be directly donated to the foundation.

Environmental Sanu Kazi Shrestha's Presentation

Sanu Kazi Shrestha a Solar energy lobbyist and an award winning environmentalist from Kathmandu, Nepal, gave a presentation on sustainable alternative energies in the context of Nepal and many other developing countries to a group of Nepali as well as American friends at the Nritya Mandal Mahavihara, Portland.

Sanu Kazi Shrestha also showed a demonstration of making a fuel briquette from scrap papers. Suva Shakya and Prjwal Vajracharya deserve our special thanks for coordinating the event.

Regular Activities:

NAO representatives attended the NW Jamghat picnic organized by Nepalese Seattle Society in Seattle. As a part of the Jamghat, NAO also participated in the NW Nepali Friendship Volley Ball team competition. Many members from Oregon attended the Jamghat, including NAO VP Sanjeev Pradhan and IPP Dillu Thapa.

After-Thanksgiving Household Goods Give Away Program: 2009 & 2010

NAO organized successful event of giving household goods away to the Bhutani refugees from Nepal in November, 2009 and 2010. More than 20 families benefitted from the program. Additional household goods were also collected and distributed to many new families in December 2010. Similar program was also organized in November 2009.

NAO also organized 5th and 6th Himalayan Table Tennis Championship Tournaments in June 2009 at Portland state University and in June 2010 at the Tualatin Hills Athletic Center. The table tennis events were participated by many of our community members as well as Tibetans and American friends.

Besides, NAO continue to organize annual programs New Year celebration 2067, in April 2010; Dasain celebration in October 2009 & 2010; and Summer Potluck Picnic in July 2009. The highlight of 2010 Dasain event was sel roti prepared by volunteers form our community. More and more community members are attending these events. NAO is committed to organize future events in more interesting and engaging manner.
